What is Teen Court?

Teen Court offers eligible youth an alternative to appearing in Juvenile Court. They have an opportunity to receive a meaningful consequence from a jury of their peers.

Why a Teen Court?

Teen Court offers eligible youth an opportunity to take responsibility for their actions. It provides positive peer pressure with community based consequences.

Who is eligible?

The Buffalo/Pepin County Teen Court will serve youth ages 10-16 years who commit first time violations of offenses such as:

- Disorderly Conduct or Bullying
- No Valid Driver's License
- Damage to Property/Vandalism
- Shoplifting/Retail Theft
- Trespassing
- DNR/Park Offenses, Littering, Curfew, or ATV violations
- Possession of Alcohol, Tobacco, Marijuana, or Paraphernalia
- Truancy
- Unlawful Use of a Telephone

Referrals for Teen Court will come from the Court, Human Services, Law Enforcement, and School Administrators.

How Does Teen Court Operate?

1. The offender appears before a panel of three to five teen judge panelists.
2. Panelists will be from a local school district, excluding the offender's school.
3. Panelists have received specialized training in court procedures.
4. A parent or legal guardian is required to attend the session with the offender.
5. Offender must admit the violation offense.
6. Panelists discuss the offense with the offender to determine why the offense occurred and determine the most effective consequences.
7. Panelists may question parents.
8. Panelists decide the consequences which may include essays, community service, apology letter or other innovative sanctions.
9. A coordinator monitors the offender's performance of the sentencing guidelines.
10. Offender pays a small fee towards the cost of Teen Court.
11. All procedures are confidential.
12. If offender successfully completes the work, the case is closed without the offender receiving a conviction record. If offender is unsuccessful in completing sentence the offender will be returned to the referring agency.
